

Through the lens: A look around town, past and present

Marie Grady Palcic

The exteriors of the Hyannis HyArts Artist Shanties feature photographs from each of the town of Barnstable's seven villages: Barnstable, Centerville, Cotuit, Hyannis, Marstons Mills, Osterville, and West Barnstable. Local photographer Marie Grady Palcic researched historical archives for many of the Barnstable locales and shares photos from the 'early days', in contrast to how the villages appear today. Other images are part of the 'Seven Series' –themed images with one photo from each of the seven villages featured. Historic photos supplied with the assistance of historian Nancy Vail Shoemaker, the Barnstable Historical Society, Cotuit Historical Society and Sturgis Library.
